Jalal Greene, Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD), announces a series of public hearings on “Housing and Community Development Needs in the District of Columbia”. The hearings will form a basis for developing the District’s draft “Consolidated Plan for the District of Columbia Fiscal Year 2007 Action Plan” and the spending priorities utilizing federal entitlement funds. The public is invited to identify the needs of their communities and to comment on the Department’s performance during fiscal year 2005, in meeting the District’s housing and community development needs.

Residents and other stakeholders are strongly encouraged to come out and participate in the development of policies and programs in the following areas: 1) affordable housing; 2) special needs housing; 3) homelessness; 4) homeownership; and 5) community development and public service activities. The Department is also interested in receiving community feedback on innovative strategies to enhance community participation during this planning process. Five (5) public hearings will be held throughout the city.
